

FRIDAY FLYER

Happy Friday Everyone and, of course, Happy Hawaiian Disco Day!

There's nothing like kicking back at a Hawaiian Disco, superbly organised by our wonderful PTA, after a hard week of SATs tests!

Yes, SATs week is over and we want to say as a school how proud we are of all the children in Y6. You have worked so hard this week, well done!

With the support of our super governing body, we were able to kick off our celebrations marking the end of SATs with a visit from an ice cream van! It was a wonderful way to finish the last day of testing and I know that you all quite enjoyed the visit too, with the queue reaching to the top playground at times. I think we should make this a regular occurrence!

Here are some pictures of the ice cream celebrations.

By the time you read this our wonderful Year 6 children will, with the support of our wonderful PTA, have received the Leaver Hoodies – here modelled by our very own model, Jayden from Year 6!

A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

As some of you know, I trained as a conductor and pianist before moving into teaching. Although this seems like many moons ago, I still do a large amount of music work when I'm not being a headteacher. Sometimes both worlds collide and I am really excited that on Friday 5th July I will be conducting a joint choir concert with our superb school choir and a choir I conduct in Portsmouth – the Milton Glee Choir. The concert, which will take place in Midhurst Parish Church, is in aid of a charity that has benefited both the school and many of us as a community, the Midhurst Community Hub. Together with our school choir, numbering 25 singers, and the Milton Choir numbering around 60, the sound of around 85 singers together in our school church should be something not to be missed, and I hope provides an amazing and memorable experience for our children. I will be sending details to our choir parents in the coming week but I wanted to give you notice so that you might put the date in your diary. I have attached the poster for the concert lower down in this flyer.

Anyhow, I have a disco to prepare for! What a super way to end a week full of reasons to be proud of all of our children.

I hope you have an enjoyable weekend.

With every best wish

Mark
